

Piano Instructor:

- Minimum Bachelor of Music in piano performance or music education.
- Experience teaching private lessons to students 5 years old and up.
- Preferably a member of MTAC, though not required at time of hire, but with intent of joining so students can participate in the Certificate of Merit in the spring.
- Encourage and prepare students for 2 recitals a year (December and May) and you are required to attend the 2 recitals per year.
- Ability to teach students essential fundamentals, music theory, and strong technique, classical music, and at minimum beginner to early intermediate other genres that a student may be interested in; pop, blues, jazz.
- A deep passion for music and for helping each student reach their own musical goals.
- Organized, communicative, punctual, responsible, approachable, and good social skills are important.

The Hunter School of Music:

- Community music school that strives to bring families in the area together through music.
- Provide every student with the best musical education possible.
- Friendly, caring, warm, and inviting atmosphere.
- We pay our instructors well and we take care of all the scheduling, communication, and other logistics with the students and parents so all you have to do is concentrate on teaching.
- We have a 5 star rating on Yelp, Google, Groupon, Facebook, and Thumbtack with excellent reviews and testimonials.
- Our piano studios have excellent Yamaha pianos that are regularly tuned.